Holthouse Carlin & Van Trigt (HCVT) has added two new partners to the largest Certified Public Accounting firm in Southern California.

David Erard, who brings more than 10 years of experience to HCVT, will be based in the company's Orange County office. He primarily works with private equity clients on real estate-related businesses and investments. Prior to his work with HCVT, Erard worked for KPMG, an international tax and audit company, in the company's Orange County and Washington National Tax (WNT) offices. At WNT, Erard worked on income tax issues related to partners and partnerships. He earned his master's in accounting with a tax emphasis from Brigham Young University, which launched his public accounting career.

Jeffrey Fields will be based in both HCVT's Orange County and Santa Monica offices. Fields works with and provides tax services to various types of companies, from restaurants to manufacturing corporations. Prior to his work at HCVT, Fields spent 13 years at KPMG working on corporate taxation. Fields has done a variety of work at Fortune 500 companies and small family-owned corporations, from consulting to tax compliance. He earned his bachelor's in business administration from California State University, Fullerton and his master's in taxation from Golden Gate University.
